PublishAmerica Presents It's Good to Be Golden by Jeffery A. Faulkerson, MSSW

Frederick, MD January 31, 2008 -- PublishAmerica is proud to present It's Good to Be Golden: The Stranger in the Shadows by Wake Forest, North Carolina author Jeffery A. Faulkerson, MSSW. The book is available now for online purchase at www.publishamerica.com (Author keyword search: Faulkerson).

It's Good to Be Golden: The Stranger in the Shadows is a story that teaches young children to be wary of strangers even when these same strangers display selfless acts of kindness. The story opens with the Golden family—parents Raymond, Sr. and Millicent, and sons Freddie and Ray-Ray—traveling from Michigan to their new home in Tennessee. When the family stops at a rest area for a picnic lunch, Freddie and Ray-Ray encounter “The Stranger in the Shadows.” Ray-Ray winds up missing, and Freddie assumes that his little brother has been snatched up by “The Stranger.” Freddie must find Ray-Ray to show his parents that he can be responsible for someone other than himself.

PublishAmerica is the home of 25,000 talented authors. PublishAmerica is a traditional publishing company whose primary goal is to encourage and promote the works of new, previously undiscovered writers. Like more mainstream publishers, PublishAmerica pays its authors advances and royalties, makes its books available in both the United States and Europe through all bookstores, and never charges any fees for its services. PublishAmerica offers a distinctly personal, supportive alternative to vanity presses and less accessible publishers.
